ANNUAL REPORT \| FISCAL YEAR 2018

THE VERMONT EDUCATION FUND RECEIVES 100\% OF LOTTERY PROFITS.

2018 marked the Vermont Lottery's 40th Anniversary celebrating four state's $G$ decades of entertainment, prizes for our customers and funding to th .
From the introduction of instant tickets in 1978, Tri-State Megabucks in 1985, Powerball in 2003, Mega Millions in 2010 and Fast Play Pro in 2014, the Vermont Lottery has kept the fun and surprises rolling, specifically benefiting K -12 education in Vermont since 1999

Players continue to have an extra opportunity to win online with our 2nd Chance program, games and by using their mobile devices

Just as game styles are constantly changing and new technology is used to improve the player experience, this past year also brought some significant changes to the Vermont Lottery itself. By Executive Order and legislative action, the Department of Liquor Control and the Vermont Lottery Commission combined to create the Department of Liquor and Lottery (DLL)
This organizational change strengthens the Vermont Lottery, allowing us to continue oo offer a wide variety of instant games that are entertaining and give our players he best chances to win; last year alone we awarded more than $$ 87$ million in prizes. from our online (or draw) sales increased $5.95 \%$. These ticket sales, along with sales commissions.
Since its inception, the Vermont Lottery has contributed over $$ 643$ million to the state's General and Education Fund. In cooperation with the Agency of Education we also fund and award an Educate and Innovate Grant. We've revamped the program a little and, in the spring of 2019, we will be awarding two schools funds and equipment to start or embellish new or existing Maker Spaces. This is another way that the Vermont Lottery profits enhance the education efforts in Vermont.

The staff and the commissioners of the former Vermont Lottery and new Division of Lottery are proud of our past contributions to the Education Fund and, as we end contributions.

Commissioners

History

Public Act No. 82 was enacted by the 1977 General Assembly establishing the Vermont Lottery Commission. The first Lottery ticket, Green Mountain Game, went on sale to the public February 14, 978. Since the Lottery's inception, all profits generated by the Vermont Lottery were dedicated for use by the state's General Fund. In July 1998, the Vermont Legislature mandated that all profits from he Lottery go to the state's Education Fund. The Vermont Lottery is run by a small, efficient staff lotty in United States vet Enerated over $$ 132$ milion in revenue daring FY18.

Products

n FY18, the Vermont Lottery offered 10 games for sale: Instant Tickets, Powerball, Mega Millions Lucky for Life; and the Tri-State games Megabucks, Fast Play, Fast Play Pro, Pick 3, Pick 4 and Gimm Aave changes planned for the coming years. We believe that making periodic changes to mames causes them to be more appealing to current and potential players. These changes are thoroughly eviewed by mathematicians, lottery game technicians, market research groups and each state lottery that offers the games, to ensure integrity and ease of play. The variety of games, prices, prize levels, odds of winning, and themes allows us to provide games that appeal to a broad demographic mix

Lottery Agents

In FY18, there were over 610 Lottery agents in Vermont who sold online games and Instant Tickets. Agents received a commission of $6 \%$ of their total Powerball, Mega Milions and Lucky for Life sales and $5.75 \%$ of all other Lottery product sales. In addition, agents received a $1 \%$ bonus for selling winning tickets of $$ 500$ and up (agent bonus capped at $$ 30,000$ ). In FY18, the commissions and bonuses paid to agents were $$ 8.1$ million.

Responsible Gaming

The Vermont Lottery partners with the Center for Addiction Recognition Treatment Education & Recovery (CARTER) so we may aid Vermonters who need help managing their focus on gambling. We also provide the counselors who offer these services throughout Vermont.

The funding provided by the Lottery pays for staffing the 24 -hour helpline, website maintenance, training for counselors, literature and event sponsorships. We also create, produce and air TV and radio advertisements all year long. We continue to print the helpline phone number and website address on over 20 million Lotter tickets sold each year.

We encourage everyone who knows somebody struggling with a gambling problem to have them call 1-800-522-4700 or visit problemgambling.vermont.go so they can learn what options are available.
